1. In Guben the FDJ has started a propaganda campaign under the slogan "President Pieck's native city shall be the first in the DDR where only radio transmissions from the DDR are heard".
2. Functionaries of the FDJ have agreed to explain to the population of Guben, in private conversations, "the evil influence of the radio broadcasts from West Germany", and to persuade the citizens to sign declarations in which they pledge themselves to listen only to East German broadcasts. The functionary who succeeds in collecting the largest number of signed pledges is to receive a prize at a suitable ceremony.
